

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

2 May 1947

Dear Mr. Carter:

The President has asked me to thank you in his name and in behalf of the entire White House staff, to which I wish to add my own, for the very delicious steaks which you sent us via Harry Crooks. We had them the other day for luncheon in the Secretaries' dining room, to which affair we invited three or four members of the cabinet, and everyone was most enthusiastic over a delicacy that is altogether too scarce in Washington.

It was most kind of you and we all appreciated it very much.

Sincerely
