Honorable Harry S. Truman
President of the United States
The White House
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. President: Heartiest congratulations on your great victory.

It was a personal triumph of which you have every right to be proud, particularly in view of the unanimous opinions of all the dopesters, pollsters and gamblers that your defeat was a foregone conclusion. The Republicans had all the polls and you got most all the votes. It demonstrated again the old saying QUOTE Preaching is never out 'til singing is over UNQUOTE and as Josh Billings said QUOTE There aint no argument against success UNQUOTE I am happy for you, for Mrs. Truman and for Margaret and wish for you continued good health and a most successful administration. Kindest personal regards.

AMON G. CARTER
