COMMITTEE ON ARMED SERVICES

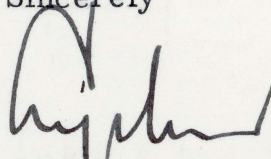

June 6, 1950

Dear Amon:

I have read with great interest your letter of June 3rd and the attached letter from the White House. I am glad to know of the White House interest in reducing the importation of foreign oil, and I certainly am grateful to you for letting me see a copy of the letter.

The Austin meeting was very fine, and I was naturally proud of the generous spirit which prevailed among so many fine citizens and good Democrats. Hope you had a good trip to Miami.

Sincerely

Lyndon B. Johnson
