Fort Worth, Texas

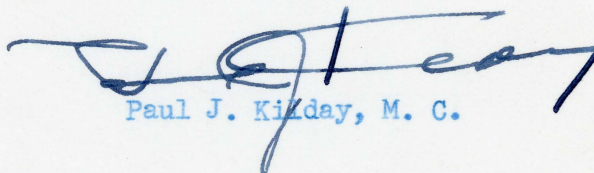

My dear Mr. Carter:

This will acknowledge the receipt of yours
of July 27th.

I thank you sincerely for giving me your views with reference to the present necessity for economic controls. I believe that we are a good deal in accord.
We are now considering a bill which does not go that far. The matter is receiving my very careful consideration and I hope for the best possible bill.

With best regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

Paul J. Kilday, M. C.
