

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

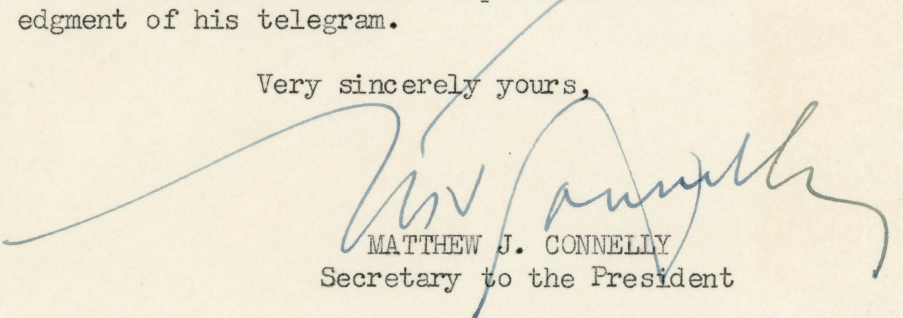

August 12, 1950

Dear Mr. Beckworth:

In returning the enclosures which accompanied your note of July thirty-first, I want to thank you, in the President's behalf, for your courtesy in giving him an opportunity to see them.

The President on July thirty-first sent to Mr. Amon G. Carter a personal acknowledgment of his telegram.

Very sincerely yours,

MATTHEW J. CONNELLY
Secretary to the President

Honorable Lindley Beckworth,
House of Representatives,
Washington, D. C.
