an athlete, you know, and I used to watch him move the muscles in his abdomen. I learned to do it, and I incorporated the trick in this dance I did.

"That was one of the reasons the police raided the show. They claimed they could see my navel moving. I told the court I didn't see how they could because I was covered up."

Miss West is following another longtime Paramount star, Marlene Dietrich, at the Sahara. I asked if she would attempt a sensation like Miss Dietrich's topless gown.

"No, I don't think so," she replied. "I wouldn't want to copy anyone. Besides, I prefer to work covered up. I've always thought a big piece of jewelry here or there can be sexier than a low-cut gown."

She'll do a song and skit act with six men. Her plans after the date? She'll either do a TV series on famous lovers or star in a new play she is writing. The title is apt: "Sextette."

'Mr. Sweeney' Expected To Be Summer Success

BY C. E. BUTTERFIELD.
NEW YORK, July 6 (AP).—Charlie Ruggles shouldn't have any trouble continuing the success his "The World of Mr. Sweeney" act gained on the Kate Smith hour.

After a premiere performance last the opener wasn't dubbed in, though it sounded that way. It came from a handful of guests, their number limited by the size of the studio. Except for Glenn Walken, 7, playing the grandson, and Helen Wagner as the boy's mother, the supporting cast will vary.

This is not Ruggles' first TV venture. His filmed family comedy, "The Ruggles," ran on ABC-TV for three years and still is being carried.

Truman Continues To Make Progress

KANSAS CITY, July 6 (AP).—Harry S. Truman continued to make progress in recovering from his operation but there was no indication when he'll be able to leave the hospital.

"It's still too early to say how soon Mr. Truman will be leaving," Robert E. Adams, acting administrator at Research Hospital, said Monday night. "Visitors still are limited. If they were not, there would be an almost constant line waiting to see him."

The former President's gall bladder and appendix were removed in an emergency operation June 20.
