

FORT WORTH STAR-TELEGRAM

MORNING EVENING SUNDAY

AMON G. CARTER, PRESIDENT

FORT WORTH, TEXAS

September 25, 1943.

B. C. Naugle, Seaman First Class,
U. S. Naval Air Station,
c/o A & R, Dallas 2, Texas.

Dear Billy:

Your letter of September 23rd received, regarding the competitive spirit which has developed in your Naval Air Station between Fort Worth and Dallas in connection with the Third War Bond campaign.

Your letter is very interesting and shows you have the right spirit to make an A-1 man in your duties as a member of our great Navy and that is what it takes to win in any kind of battle - spirit, ability, courage and determination.

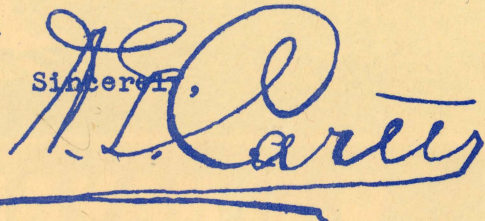

As an evidence of my appreciation of the commendatory Fort Worth spirit you have displayed, I will purchase through the Fort Worth National Bank immediately $2500.00 worth of War Savings Bonds and authorize them to give you credit for the sale through the Naval Air Station at Grand Prairie. I hope that you will not stop on this amount but will endeavor to sell more bonds if possible.

Dallas may be larger than Fort Worth but I am sure, with all due respect, that you need have no apology to make for standing up for Fort Worth and your own community. If some people and communities would only work and produce as hard as they "blow" the bond campaign would be over. And, just as a reminder, Fort Worth was the first city of its size to go over the top on its quota last Tuesday afternoon, September 21st, and we hope to excell our quota by 50% at least.

So hop to it and when you get in action do a good job. Give 'em hell!

With best wishes, I am

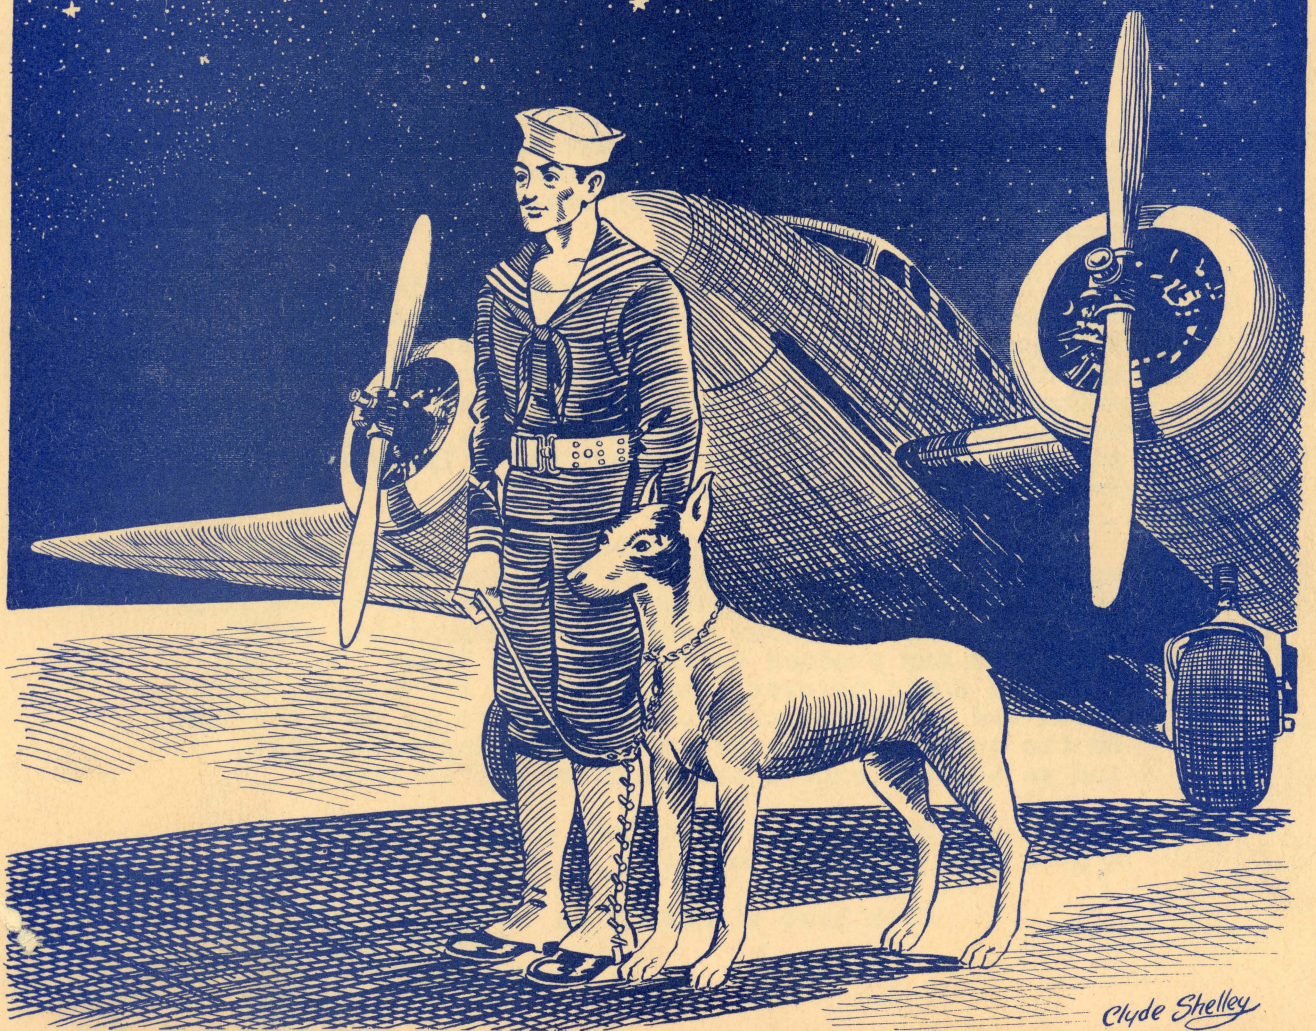

Sincerely,

Amon G. Carter
