Dear Mr. Deakins:

In the absence of General Vandenberg from the city, I have taken the liberty of opening your letter of March 16th. I know that he would want me to extend his sincere thanks to Mr. Carter and to you for forwarding them to him. Your photographer did a swell job, and I know that each one of the photographs will serve to remind the General of what was to him a very enjoyable occasion.

Sincerely,

JOHN M. WHITE, Jr.
Lt. Colonel, USAF
Aide to the C/S, USAF
