

May 1, 1947.

General Jonathan M. Wainwright,
Headquarters, Fourth Army,
Office Commanding General,
Fort Sam Houston, Texas.

My dear General:

The Texas Kriegle-Horyo Club will hold its annual get-together of German and Jap prisoners-of-war in Fort Worth June 21 and 22.

On the twenty-first there will be a meeting, banquet and dance at the Texas Hotel. On the twenty-second, Aron Junior and I will give a barbecue for the crowd, anticipated to be between two-hundred and two-hundred and fifty, at Shady Oak Farm. Both of us are extremely anxious to have you come up as our guest.

I realize, of course, that you are busy, still I feel this is one meeting you would probably enjoy and I am quite sure your presence would be the high light of the meeting. So, we hope you can work out your plans accordingly.

It goes without saying that you and your party will be my guests at the Fort Worth Club.

With best wishes, I am

Sincerely,

AGC:kd