Dear Mr Carter:

It was indeed gratifying to read your splendid editorial in the Fort Worth Star-Telegram of Thursday morning, 19 June 1947, entitled: "Universal Training."

The manner in which you presented to your readers the true facts regarding the necessity for Universal Training, to insure peace and prevent war, was excellent. With the assistance of the press, the War Department Plan for Universal Military Training will be presented to the people properly so that the public in general will realize why such training is essential for the security of the United States.

Please accept my sincere thanks and congratulations on your presentation of factual information on such an important subject to the vast number of readers covered by your outstanding daily.

Sincerely,

J. M. WAINWRIGHT
General, U. S. Army
Commanding
