Dear Bill:

Am in receipt of your very interesting note of the 8th, together with photograph and copy of your letter to Major Dickinson. Frankly, I had anticipated something of this kind. As you know, when anybody tells A.G.C. "It can't be done", he usually does it.

For fear of offending his modesty, I will not use this story until he returns, but at the same time, certainly appreciate your thoughtfulness in sending it.

With kindest regards, I am

Yours sincerely,
