Dear Mr. Goldwyn:

Mark Barron of the Associated Press is one of the most important newspaper men in this country, and one of the most respected. He comes from Texas, and has a specially great following in the newspapers of Texas.

He is the one newspaper man whom you should make an exception of and take with us as your guest to Ft. Worth. I hope you agree.

In this connection, I would appreciate it very much if you would write a short informal note to Amon Carter telling him that you have invited Mr. Barron to come to Texas as your guest, and that it would help Mr. Barron to get the A.P. approval if Mr. Carter were to drop Mr. Kent Cooper of the A.P. a note indicating that he is interested in the idea.

Sincerely,

Mr. Samuel Goldwyn,
Waldorf Astoria Hotel,
New York City
