Mr. Samuel Goldwyn
7210 Santa Monica Blvd.,
Los Angeles, Calif.

Naturally we are very much disappointed over the curtailment of time in Fort Worth on premier showing of Westerner PERIOD It was generally and definitely understood we would have two days devoted exclusively to the celebration here and of course I was surprised to find it had been cut to one day and the extra day allocated to Dallas PERIOD You stated to me that this was not your responsibility; that it was entirely up to Bob O'Donnell PERIOD On my arrival home I immediately took the matter up with Bob and he stated this statement was in error that the program to be carried out in Dallas was at your request PERIOD Meanwhile I haven't time to quarrel with two good friends about veracity so we are going to do the best we can in the time allocated to Fort Worth PERIOD fifty piece Have arranged for Simmons/Cowboy Band from Abilene and their six white horses to be in the parade. They are regarded as one of the outstanding bands of the nation and will be very colorful in their cowboy hats, chaps and equipment. Rumored here that you have cancelled arrangements which I made for you with Mrs. Rogers/to have Will Roger's horse, "Soapsuds", and his original saddle in the parade for Gary Cooper to ride. Information is that you have cancelled this on account of the cost of about six hundred dollars. This will be very embarrassing and I hope you will reconsider the matter as while six hundred dollars is six hundred dollars it is a cheap investment insofar as the sentiment and publicity which could be injected into this project by Gary Cooper using Will Roger's personal horse and saddle PERIOD The whole program has been "bitched" up to a certain extent and I hope nothing further will happen and that you will go ahead and have Soapsuds sent. We cannot take our money with us - that is what's left when the Government gets through so take an extra notch in your belt and send Soapsuds along. It will at least help iron out the kinks in the mixup we have had on time allotted to Fort Worth. Everything is progressing nicely and we feel certain you will be well pleased but we need Soapsuds.
