Dear Mr. Carter:

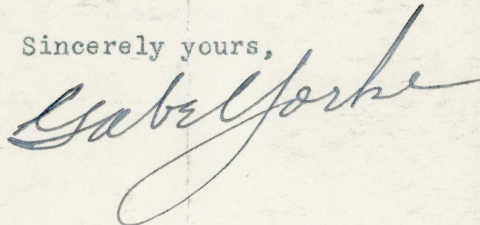

I want to express my very sincerest thanks for your hospitality, particularly during our hours at the ranch, but no less for the whole time we were in Fort Worth. I want to state separately my appreciation for the hat which I must assure you will be carefully treasured.

On getting back here, our mutual friend, Winnie Sheehan, asked me if I had seen you and I of course told him I had. I regret very much that I did not know until I returned that you and he were such very good friends. Winnie has been a particularly good friend of mine since before he entered picture business, and for eleven years I was associated with him in the Fox Film Corporation.

Without a dissenting voice it is acknowledged that there is nothing to equal Fort Worth hospitality. It is the main discussion in the telephone conversations I am having this morning with those who were on the party. It stands out above all else in the memories of a very happy time.

Thank you again.

Sincerely yours,

Mr. Amon Carter
