729 SEVENTH AVENUE
NEW YORK

Dear Mr. Carter,

I can't tell you what a pleasant and glowing memory we all have of your great celebration and of the warmth of your hospitality. It was an event that we all will remember as long as we live.

Texas and Ft. Worth was to me a brown area, a big one, on the map. Now it's a place where people live, have a great deal of fun and know how to put on a show.

It was fine and wonderful and I can't thank you enough.

Mrs. Goldwyn joins me in sending you our most affectionate thanks and greetings.

Sincerely,

Mr. Amon Carter,
