

EDWARD ARNOLD

October 2, 1940

My dear Amon:

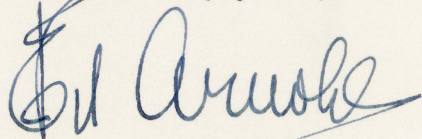

I am sorry I didn't get a chance to say goodbye to you the night we left Dallas, but I do want to take this opportunity to tell you how much I appreciated and enjoyed your hospitality and, by the same token, thanks for the hats.

I am sending you, under separate cover, a book of mine that was published this past year, and I hope, if you do have a chance to read it, that you enjoy it.

I trust that the time will not be far off when I shall again have the privilege of visiting Fort Worth. May I take the liberty of looking you up?

Again, many thanks and with sincerest regards to you and Mrs. Carter, believe me to be

Sincerely yours,

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Ed Arnold". The signature is written in a cursive style with a large initial "E". A long horizontal line is drawn underneath the signature.
