

July 5, 1939.

Mr. Paul Whiteman,
Essex House,
New York City, N.Y.

Dear Mr. Whiteman:

Enclosed you will find a copy of Mr. Carter's comments at the time the presentation of the "Six-shooter" was made at Stamford and a clipping of the Star-Telegram in which it appeared.

The gun did not arrive until noon yesterday, meanwhile arrangements were made to send it on to Stamford and for Frank Reeves, Staff Correspondent, to present the gun to Judge Coombs.

Mr. Carter opened the package upon its arrival and thought the gun a beauty - in fact, if too many people hadn't known it was on the way, the gun might have been waylaid here.

With best wishes, I am

Sincerely,

Secy. to Mr. Carter.
