

Whiteman Show Is Dedicated to Ft. Worth Bride

Paul Whiteman, dean of modern American music, Monday night sent his compliments via an American Broadcasting Company national program to a Fort Worth couple who will be married Saturday.

In a program dedicated to June brides, Whiteman said: "I especially want to dedicate this program to a little girl I once held on my lap—Miss Ruth Carter of Fort Worth."

Whiteman said that he was sorry he could not be here for the wedding of Miss Carter and J. Lee Johnson III at River Crest Country Club.

Several of Miss Carter's favorite songs including "I Love You Truly" and "The Wedding March" were presented.

Miss Carter is the daughter of Amon Carter and Mrs. Burton Carter of New York. Johnson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Lee Johnson Jr., 900 Alta Dr.
