New York City, N.Y.

Dear Paul:

Dr. Will S. Horn of Fort Worth, a friend of mine, has an eighteen year old daughter, Catherine, who is a serious student of the Ballet and considered a young lady with unusual talent in this field.

Miss Horn has appeared with our Civic Opera in Fort Worth. She spent the summer in Houston in a professional engagement with the Houston Outdoor Operetta. She is going to New York early in September to study at the School of Ballet Art, Carnegie Hall, during which time she will live at the Barbizon Plaza Hotel.

Miss Horn has expressed a desire to meet and talk with you and I am giving her a letter of introduction; however since she will probably be studying and I am not certain of the days or hours you are in New York, I wonder if you would be good enough to ask your secretary to call Miss Horn when you have an opportunity to discuss her ambition and problems with her. She will be in New York after September 10 at the Barbizon Plaza Hotel.

I would not impose upon your busy schedule with a matter of this kind if I did not feel the young lady were serious in her work and has unusual talent. I will appreciate it very much if you can spare her a few moments of your time.

We enjoyed seeing you and Margaret in Fort Worth and hope you will hurry back.

Sincerely,

AGC:kd
