

IN LOTUS BEDS—Miss Virginia Rose, waving with delight, as she finds herself in the center of this charming scene—the lotus beds at Grass Lake.—Herald and Examiner photo.

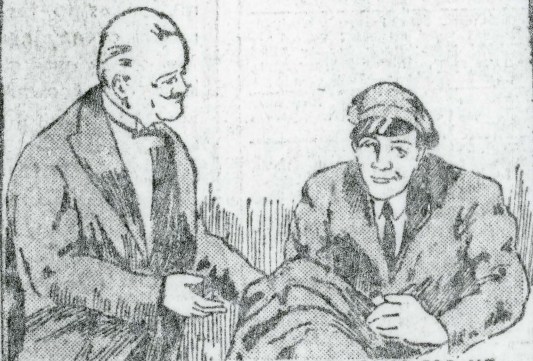

TO FINISH—Mrs. Holland Flagler, Miss Myrtle Hughes Lunde, leaders in the fight against policies of the school board, shown at meeting yesterday. Our Schools Committee became permanent group.

DARROW ASSAILS BOARD—Clarence Darrow, hurling a bitter attack upon the school-wrecking program of the Board of Education, at a massmeeting of 5,000 parents in Eighth Regiment Armory last night. The famed lawyer urged the citizens to force the resignation of the board.—Herald and Examiner photo.

Luckner's Own Story

THROUGH MISTAKE TWO LETTERS CAME FOR ME GIVING MY FULL NAME AND RANK. I ARGUED WITH THE HEAD WAITER TRYING TO GET THE LETTERS FOR "MY FRIEND, COUNT LUCKNER." THE OLD MAN WAS NEAR BY. NOW EVERYTHING I DID WAS SUSPICIOUS. "WHAT DID THAT FELLOW WANT?" HE INQUIRED OF THE WAITER. "HE ASKED FOR LETTERS FOR COUNT VON LUCKNER."

CONTINUED TOMORROW 115

ASKED,
LET'S
ERE OLD HAD

MRS. DALL FLIES TO N. Y.—Mrs. Anna Roosevelt Dall, daughter of the President, as she returned to New York yesterday by American Airways, after attending the wedding of her brother, Elliott, to Roth Googins at Burlington, Ia. With her is Amon Carter, Texas publisher. Mrs. Dall plans a second visit to Chicago to see the fair before the end of the Summer.