

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

October 5, 1933.

My dear Mr. Carter:

I am delighted with that suit you brought to me at the request of President Knapp of the Texas Technological College. Many thanks for your kindness in the matter. I am sending a word of appreciation to President Knapp and also to the two students who made the cloth.

Best wishes to you.

Very sincerely yours,

Amon G. Carter, Esq.,
Hotel Washington,
Washington, D. C.
