HEADQUARTERS

WORTH HOTEL, FORT WORTH, TEXAS

Mr. Dear Mr. Carter: I hand you herewith my resignation with the request, that if you see fit, that you communicate same to Mr. Wortham and ask him to have some one relieve me at the earliest date possible.

I think I'll take a rest for a while and let my noodle work out, as I think it might improve my judgment. Don't you think so? But at any rate, I think it better that Mr. Wortham put someone else in my place and the sooner he does it the better it will be for both The Star, him and myself.

I will work Monday but do not desire to work any longer than I can possibly help. The only regret that I have in resigning is that it looks like I am not to make good; and as I have not yet been up against a proposition where I couldn't deliver the goods, I think it best to back down before I make a fizzle. I am sure that a gentleman with your belief in making good will appreciate what this means.

Yours very truly,

Jimme
