

THE FORT WORTH

GRAM

C. D. REIMERS, Publisher

Fort Worth, Texas, DEC. 16th, 1907.

TO CORRESPONDENTS;-

The Fort Worth Telegram has the largest list of special correspondents of any afternoon paper in the southwest, and appreciating their service has always promptly paid them and paid them well.

The last two months the financial stringency has made itself felt here and altho our business is increasing, ready cash is difficult to obtain despite the fact there is no cause for alarm. Collections are bad.

We consequently ask you to be patient until times get a little better, which will be soon. We enclose you herewith check to cover amount shown on our books as due you to October 1st.

To pay one correspondent would not be fair to the others and to pay all takes a large amount of money.

Our telegraph tolls are very heavy, and we further ask you to cut every piece of news you put on the wire to the very bone- give just the facts. Send only the most important news by wire, but don't let us get scooped on anything big. Just remember that by you trying to keep down our expenses, it will not only help us, but will be to your interests.

Yours very truly,

THE FORT WORTH TELEGRAM.

By B. C. Utecht News Editor.