Sir:-
Your Xmas edition, published over a month ago, is still getting favorable mention in many reputable publications throughout the West and Southwest.

That peerless periodical, "The Advertiser's Magazine", published at Kansas City, has the following to say about your special edition in their January issue. Such comment is worth the while—Since their criticism or extolation is a knock or boost to any Publication, advertisement, or business method, wherein printers' ink is the basic source of consideration.

Like old "Blutcher", it is in a class by itself.
