

scrip book

Chevrolet Motor Company

New York, N.Y.

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

November 22, 1916.

Mr. A. G. Carter,
Fort Worth, Tex.

My dear Mr. Carter:-

You will probably be glad to know that the pup arrived safely and that he is well pleased with his new home.

By the way, you picked a real one. He is not a "regular feller", and the ordinary rules will not apply in his case.

I read the directions carefully, cleared the decks for action, and started in with the "sound fest". I clapped my hands until they were covered with blisters and blew that tin horn until I was black in the face -- nothing stirring!

Then I tried coaxing with bon bons and soft talk -- with no better results. As a last resort, I dropped a half dollar on the desk, and oh, my! --- say, that pup is money mad!

Try it on your dog some time and see how it works.

It has caused no end of amusement and you have made us very happy.

Sincerely yours,

W.C. Durant

Fr

WCD*W