

Brown Harwood, agent for J. S. Mullen, bets Amon G. Carter the sum of Two Hundred Eighty Five & no/100 ($285.00-) against Two Hundred Sixty & no/100 Dollars ($260.00) that Chas. Evans Hughes, will be elected President of the United States today the 7th. Of November 1916.

The holder of this money is authorized to hold same four days after this date, unless the election is so close that the result is in doubt, then in that instance he is to hold same fifteen days.

Signed in Triplicate
at Two-thirty o'clock.

Brown Harwood

Agent for J. S. Mullen

A G Carter

240 bet with Mr Goodlet
to 300⁰⁰ on Wilson
money departed with
W^m Massie Cas
Fort Worth Nat Bank

A G Carter