

THE FORT WORTH TELEGRAM

C. D. REIMERS, Publisher

Fort Worth, Texas,

Purchase price $85,000, $25,000 cash, $25,000 in 12 mo., $25,000 in 24 months, all to bear 6 % int, $7,600 payable within 90 days ($2,400 to be credited in press settlement) but in default to be covered with note bearing 6 % . All notes deferred payments to carry lien clause and to carry Paul Waples and John h Kirby as endorsers. Possession of property to be given Oct 1, if arrangements all satisfactorily adjusted before. Property to be turned over debt free. Accounts not to be turned over until after 40 dgs when they become property of purchasers. But notes now held or given and suits instituted or now under way for collections not to be included in those to be turned over ~~xxxxxxxxxxxx~~ to purchasers. Bill of sale to show invoice of property. Stockman-Journal included in sale. The Citizen and its property not included in sale. Goss Printing Press company to be given contract on side covering agreement of purchasers to carry on contract made between Goss and Telegram for new press: