

CULBERSON RALLY

Dear Madam: It has been arranged, through the courtesy of Mr. B. L. Anderson (formerly "Oscar's" campaign manager) to have a little "Cotton Carnival" at some suitable, inexpensive place, and you are hereby commanded to be present on Wednesday night at the Majestic Theater, at 8:15.

Any suggestions you may have regarding the kind of a free lunch you prefer, or refreshments desired, will be accepted in good faith.

Following the exhibition at the Majestic you are expected to proceed by the shortest route to the River Crest Country Club.

It was first thought that we would have each one fetch a small lunch basket. However, after meeting with the Executive Committee, consisting of Mr. B. L. Anderson, we have decided to provide those present with a free feed.

This affair being strictly non-partisan, having no connection with the present local option election, you are permitted to wear on this occasion whatever you may choose. The only request on the part of the committee is that you bring a sunny disposition and have a hearty meal at home before leaving. This latter precaution is prompted by the fact that we have had an extremely hard summer.

You will be greeted at the Majestic by a special committee, consisting of Gary Burton, Charlie Bencini and Tommie Yarbrough, who will be dressed for the occasion and pass out sunflowers.

AMON G. CARTER,

Campaign Manager for "Charlie."

P. S.—Oh, yes! I had almost overlooked it. Be sure and bring your husband.

This Colquitt Hole-proof Cotton Sack. Guaranteed
