

ALL FACULTY MEMBERS ARE URGED TO ANNOUNCE TO THEIR CLASSES THE FOLLOWING IMPORTANT ITEMS

Any student who contemplates dropping a course this semester should do so on or before Saturday, October 25th. Any course dropped after the end of this first six weeks period will be marked failing at the end of the semester and will take off points and hours unless the student is passing the course at the time it is dropped. "Quitting" a course does not constitute a "drop".

For a teacher to dismiss a class ahead of time and thus create confusion in the halls is considered non-cooperative. Students who loiter in the halls during class hours disturb classes.

THE TEXAS INSTITUTE OF LETTERS, an organization of writers, will meet in Fort Worth, Friday, October 24th and Saturday, October 25th. The meetings Friday afternoon on the T. C. U. campus are open to students, faculty, and the interested public. The T. C. U. Lecture Series Friday evening presents Lynn Riggs, Southwestern dramatist, in the auditorium at 8:00, as a courtesy to the visiting Institute members. Rebecca W. Smith and Mable Major, members of the Institute, extend an invitation to faculty members and their families to be present.

The following students will be absent from classes October 24-25: Virginia Thaxton, Maxine Hopkins, Jo Thompson, Arthur Norred, G. L. Robertson, Kirby Ellis, Johnny Pickering, and Bill Welsh. These students will be attending a speech tournament, Commerce, Tex., Sponsored by East Texas State Teachers College.

The following yell leaders were excused from all classes Saturday Oct. 18: Virginia Williams, Vance Gorman, Martha Mellown, Marshall Mason & Joe Thompson.
