

WHAT'S ALL THIS? Teachers are turning in their grades already. Thanks for this early response. This enables our staff to begin recording grades early. O yes, we appreciate your cooperation in listing the total absences as requested.

WHO IS TO BE ADMITTED TO CLASS? After the first class session for each set of classes the student must present his "Admit to Class" card in order to be admitted. This means that after this coming Monday and Tuesday when the student comes to class without the admission card he is to be sent immediately to the Business Office. When the account is cleared the cards are delivered to the student, who uses them for admission.

AGAIN, ALL TEACHERS are urgently requested not to keep students in class without credentials.

NEW STUDENTS are entering this next week. Please give them a fair sample of the T.C.U. spirit by welcoming them to class and campus. First impressions are lasting.

FAILING STUDENTS are being reported early by several teachers as requested. For this courtesy we are grateful.

YOUR ATTENTION is again called to the address Mr. John Barclay, Austin will give in the University assembly at 11:00 o'clock, Wednesday, February 11th. His subject will be "Russian Morale". Hear him, by all means.

THE REGULAR MONTHLY BUSINESS MEETING of the faculty will be held February 2, 4 p.m., Room 1. President Sadler has indicated in a letter to each faculty member the program for that day.

THE REGULAR MONTHLY MEETING of the local chapter of the American Association of University Professors will be held February 3, 4:30 p.m., Room 8. At that time Dr. Maceo will speak on the general topic, "Income Tax Problems". All members of the faculty are invited to attend this meeting.
