Dear Oscar:

Again, I don't like to hurry you, but I find myself in the position of having to spend money quickly, if I am going to ~~be~~ able to spend it at all! Do you want to part with either of those slices of Amber that you have left? If so, how much would it cost us? If it is possible for us to do so, and you are willing to sell one of the slices to us, I feel certain that we shall be in the market to purchase it.

If I may hear from you at a very early date, I shall appreciate a prompt reply. The end of the fiscal year will soon be here, at which time ^{institutional} funds lapse if they are not already spent.

Regards.

Sincerely yours,

Frederick C. Leonard.

PS: I hope you have already received a check from the Purchasing Dept. for that large piece of Amber that we recently acquired from you. I may add that we are delighted with it, and it occupies a conspicuous place in our Meteoritical Museum.
