Dear Mr. Monnig:

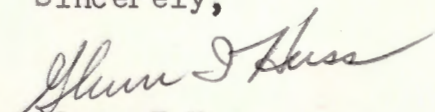

I hope that this will not seem an attempt to intrude or muscle in on a project which we consider to be yours. I am writing at the suggestion of Dr. Nininger, who called last night to tell me about your work on the fall of September 9.

He said that in talking with you he had understood you to say that lack of time was severely hampering your field work, and that although the fall looks to consist of a fairly large number of fragments, collecting is discouragingly slow. He urged that I contact you and offer my services as a field representative to collect for you in return for a portion of the material collected.

If this assessment of the situation is correct and if my assistance would provide a suitable solution, please let me know.

With best regards,

Sincerely,

Glenn I Huss
