Dear Mr. Monnig:

Thank you for your card and order of March 30. The books are being mailed to you today.

Your Brenham, Kansas, end piece was shipped via express collect last evening. The newly finished surface was covered with kleenex and paper toweling to prevent rubbing of the lacquer. I hope that it arrives in good condition and that you are well pleased with its appearance.

Enclosed is an invoice covering the cutting, polishing, and etching of the small piece and the refinishing of the Brenham specimen.

Sincerely,

Glenn I Huss
