BAND PARADE

The University Band has been invited to appear in the Armistice Day Parade this year as in the past few years. Before accepting this year, however, we want to check with the teachers and see if any of these boys are not doing work of high enough caliber to allow them to miss the classes on November 11th (morning only) and make them up later. If you have any of these students whose work is such that you feel that they cannot afford to miss please give the Band Office a note or telephone call so that we may then check to see if we can still have a representative group to represent the University in this event.
