COMMENCEMENT REGALIA

Mr. Kelly Shryoc, 3220 Bellaire Drive West, telephone 4-6177, has used hoods and gowns, both master's and doctor's, which will be shipped on account, subject to approval. He also has a large stock of new howns and hoods. Mr. Shryoc will be glad to contact members of the faculty in their offices if they will call him, or leave their names with Miss McDonald in the Business Office. Mr. Shryoc represents the company which supplies the caps, gowns, and hoods for the TCU graduating class.

HARRY H. PIERSON of I.I.E. to be on Campus May 4

Mr. Harry H. Pierson, Director of Student Programs of the Institute of International Education, is to be on the T.C.U. campus on May 4 to confer with such of our staff as may be interested in the student exchange programs administered by the Institute and in other aspects of the international exchange of persons program, including information for students and faculty with regard to the Fulbright Act. Since Mr. Pierson will be on our campus only from 9:00 A.M. to about 11:30 on Wednesday, May 4, we are setting up the following schedule for Mr. Pierson on May 4:

9:00-9:30 --Conference with President Sadler and Dean Moore

9:30-10:00--Speaks to interested faculty and students in the Auditorium.

10:00-11:00-(and possibly longer)--Conference with individuals.

If you are interested in hearing the Fulbright Act explained or in having a conference with Mr. Pierson please attend the 9:30 meeting in the Auditorium, or leave your name with Mrs. Orahood before May 4, for an individual conference after 10:00 A.M. on that day.
