

BULLETIN

Issued by the Division of University Relations

Vol. 65, No. 23, Feb. 21, 1989

FESTIVAL CELEBRATES YUCATECAN CULTURE

Yucatan, famous for its beach resorts and Mayan ruins, also has a thriving artistic scene with modern Mayans, scholars and artists creating new monuments to the peninsula's unique culture. TCU will share in that scene Monday through March 10 during the Second Festival of Yucatecan and Mayan Culture.

Participants include novelist Joaquin Bestard, who won the 1980 National Prize for "La Calle que Todos Olvidan"; regionalist painter Manuel Lizama; bilingual educator Lorenzo Moises Diaz; and anthropologist Carlos Villanueva. All events are open to the public.

An opening fiesta Monday will feature these guests. Native handicrafts from Southeastern Mexico will be on sale with proceeds benefiting the Benito Juarez Bilingual School in Mama, Yucatan. The reception will begin at 7 p.m. in the Student Center Woodson Room and will move to the Student Center gallery to open an exhibit by Lizama. The exhibit, "Visions of the Mayan World," will be shown through March 17.

On Feb. 28 the visiting artists and scholars will attend the Fort Worth City Council meeting to receive a proclamation officially recognizing the festival. That evening, music from the Yucatecan tradition will be provided by the duo Zazil Ha (Crystal Waters) at 7:30 in the Student Center ballroom. Their enchanting guitar and vocal pieces are native to Yucatan and Tabasco, and they also will perform music popular throughout Mexico. Later in the week they will give a special concert for the children of De Zavala Elementary School.

"The Ancient Mayan Calendar and Its Present Day Implications" is the title for the March 1 lecture by Villanueva, director of the Center for Mayan Area Studies. A specialist in the Mayan culture of Yucatan and Central America, he has carried out extensive field research and recently completed two books. His talk will begin at 7 p.m. in the Student Center ballroom.

Diaz, a teacher at the Benito Juarez Federal Primary Bilingual School and a leader in the movement for Mayan rights to bilingual/bicultural education, will speak March 2 at 7 p.m. in the Student Center ballroom. His talk is titled "The Maya and Contemporary Yucatecan Society."

(continued)

YUCATECAN FESTIVAL (continued)

Bestard, whose six novels and four collections of short stories have gained him international recognition, will talk March 6 on "The Writer in Contemporary Mexico and Yucatan." As a writer, Bestard couples a keen introspection into the ancient magic and wisdom of the Mayan people with an understanding of the complex problems they face today. Founder and director of the Literary Workshop at the University of Yucatan, Bestard writes about the common people in Mexico City and Yucatan. His talk will begin at 7 p.m. in the Student Center's Woodson Room.

The Second Festival of Yucatecan and Mayan Culture is sponsored by Programming Council, Research Fund Lectureship Program, AddRan College, Department of Modern Languages and Literatures, International Student Affairs and Extended Education.

*** *** ***

LIZAMA EXHIBIT TO OPEN MONDAY

"Visions of the Mayan World," paintings by Manuel Lizama of Merida, Yucatan, will be on view Feb. 27 through March 17 in Brown-Lupton Student Center Gallery. Opening reception will be held in conjunction with the opening fiesta for the 1989 Festival of Yucatecan and Mayan Culture, beginning at 7 p.m. Feb. 27 in the Student Center Woodson Room.

Subsequent hours will be 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. weekdays and 1 to 4 p.m. Saturdays and Sundays.

Lizama is a professor of painting at Merida's Institute of Fine Arts. Known as Yucatan's most prolific and most representative artist, he has shown paintings during the past 35 years throughout Mexico as well as in Belize, Spain and the United States. His murals adorn the walls of the University of Yucatan, municipal palaces in Merida and Valladolid, Yucatan, and the library and cultural center of Glendora, CA.

Lizama's work, which depicts ancient myths as well as modern life in Yucatan, reflects his deep passion and concern for the Mayan people and his native land.

*** *** ***

COERVER ACCEPTS REAPPOINTMENT

Don Coerver, whose special interests include U.S.-Mexican relations as well as federal regulations in business, has accepted reappointment for a three-year term as chairperson of the history department. The appointment is effective with the start of the 1989 fall semester.

A member of the faculty since 1973, he was president of the Southwestern Council on Latin American Studies in 1986 and serves as a consultant to the Hispanic division of the Library of Congress. His latest published works deal with Texas and the Mexican Revolution as well as the United States and Mexico in 1910-20.

OFFICIAL OF SALVADORAN OPPOSITION TO SPEAK

Arnoldo Ramos, representative of the political diplomatic commission of the Democratic Revolutionary Front and the Farabundo Marti Front for National Liberation (FDR-FMLN), will talk about recent developments in El Salvador tonight (Tuesday) at 7 o'clock in Student Center Room 204-5. The public presentation is sponsored by the Organization of Latin American Students, the Department of Political Science and the Fort Worth Interreligious Task Force on Central America.

Ramos was a faculty member of the National University of El Salvador in 1972 when he participated in the coalition led by Napoleon Duarte and Guillermo Ungo that challenged the military dictatorship in that year's presidential election. Denouncing the results of the election as fraudulent, Ramos had to leave the country as a political exile.

In 1979 he returned to El Salvador and joined the popular movement which was to form the Democratic Revolutionary Front the following year. After the assassination of the group's leadership and the outbreak of civil war, Ramos returned to the United States and began addressing North American audiences on the situation in El Salvador and the political positions of the FDR-FMLN. From 1981 to 1987 he acted as official spokesperson of the FDR-FMLN and in 1988 was named an official representative of the group's political diplomatic commission.

*** **

SYMPHONIC WINDS WILL PLAY FRIDAY

University Symphonic Winds, directed by Steven Moser, will perform symphonic band music at 8 p.m. Friday in Ed Landreth Auditorium.

The program will feature Norman Dello Joio's Scenes from The Louvre, taken from the Emmy Award-winning score of the 1964 NBC television documentary on Paris' Louvre Museum. Other works will be Gordon Jacob's Music for a Festival, with antiphonal brass choir directed by TCU graduate student Jennifer Brinson of San Angelo; Marche des Parachutistes Belges by Pierre Leemans; and Richard Wagner's Liebestod, a symphonic arrangement by Glenn Bainum of Isolde's aria Love Death from "Tristan and Isolde."

*** **

SOCIOLOGIST TO ADDRESS COLLOQUIUM

Professor William Julius Wilson of the University of Chicago will address the Monday session of the Colloquium on Values and Public Policy at 3 p.m. in Room 206 of Beasley Hall. His topic will be "Life in the Inner-City Ghetto."

Current president of the American Sociological Association, Wilson is the author of "The Declining Significance of Race" and the recent and acclaimed "The Truly Disadvantaged." He will discuss his recent work on the urban underclass. All interested persons are welcome, said Charles Lockhart of political science.

RELAY TEAM NOW NO. 18 IN NATION

The men's swim relay team has its first-ever ranking in the nation's top 20 as a result of its first-place effort in the Feb. 10 competition against the University of Texas in Austin. The Longhorns are the defending Southwest Conference and NCAA champion with a No. 1 ranking this year.

The Frogs were led by senior sprinter Doug Ellis, who won the 50 and 100 freestyles and swam the lead off leg on the 4 x 100 freestyle relay. Other members of the Purple relay squad are Mark Graves, Keith Ludwick and Steve Reed.

"We knew we had several individuals who could compete well with Texas in spite of that national No. 1 ranking," Coach Richard Sybesma said. "Matt Walter, Ludwick and Mike Visentine also had a great meet. The 400 freestyle relay was very exciting, and we had four great in-season splits," the coach added.

Richard described Ellis' efforts against Texas as "great." "We feel that if everyone swims and dives to their potential we have a legitimate shot at third in the SWC meet March 2-4 in Austin."

Lady Frogs will compete in the SWC meet this weekend in Austin.

First-place finishers in the UT meet were:

- Doug Ellis: 50 free and 100 free;
- Steve Reed: 200 butterfly;
- Kyle Bass: 1 and 3 meter diving;
- 400 freestyle relay of Ellis (46.4), Ludwick (46.4), Graves (46.4) and Reed (46.5) for TCU's best season in history.

*** **

SWIMMERS RANK HIGH IN FALL GRADES

Aquatic talents are complemented by academic ability for members of the Frogs' women's and men's swimming and diving teams. Lady Frogs had a combined team average of 3.157 to finish first overall in the athletic department for the 1988 fall semester, while the men's team finished third overall with a combined team average of 2.884.

The highest ranking teams were the following:

--Women:	Swimming	3.157
	Golf	2.87
	Soccer	2.85
--Men:	Tennis	3.076
	Swimming	2.884
	Baseball	2.80

HARRINGTON ART SHOW OPENS MONDAY

Large-scale paintings in encaustic and oil as well as drawings and monotypes by Susan Harrington, new member of the art faculty, will be shown in Moudy Building Exhibition Hall Monday through March 17. Reception for the artist will be from 5 to 7 p.m. Feb. 28. Exhibition hall hours are 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. weekdays and 1 to 4 p.m. Saturdays and Sundays.

Large diptychs and triptychs by Harrington reveal a montage of images, usually faces and heads, abstracted from photographs as well as drawn from her imagination. She uses elements of distortion, exaggerated scale contrasts and skewed spatial relationships to destroy the normal relationships between things. She chooses to focus on the inmost states that reveal the "dark side" of human nature. Susan said a trip to northern Europe in 1987 exposed her to Expressionist paintings as well as the art of non-Western religions. "This has opened me up to the symbolic and expressive power of color. Reds and blues can evoke the 'shadow' world with as much force as black," she believes.

Susan has had works included in a number of national exhibitions, including the 1987 biennial at Phoenix Museum of Art and the 1986 triennial at New Orleans Museum of Art. She was one of nine Texas artists whose work was chosen for the Texas-Berlin Exchange at the Amerika Haus, Berlin, in 1986.

A graduate of Maryland Institute College of Art who holds master's degrees from both Purdue University and the University of North Texas, Susan recently received a Faculty Research Grant to study paintings of Matthias Grunewald in Colmar, France, and in Berlin.

*** **

ALUMNUS ENSIGN TO PLAY FEB. 28

Nathan B. Ensign of Cleveland, OH, an award-winning 1972 graduate, will perform a guest organ concert at 8 p.m. Feb. 28 in Ed Landreth Auditorium. The performance is underwritten by the Sue Wheeler Smith Memorial Fund.

Holder of a Nordan Fine Arts Scholarship, Nathan earned the Bachelor of Music degree under the tutelage of Emmet Smith in 1972. As winner of the Alliance Francaise de New York Debussy Scholarship that year, he studied in France with Jean Langlais, then returned to France in 1974 for seven years of study.

He won the Tournemire Prize at St. Albans, England, in 1975 and was invited in 1980 to represent North America at the 14th International Organ Festival in Morelia, Mexico. He has performed throughout Europe, including the Notre Dame in Paris, Chartres, Marseille and Lille. Since returning to the United States in 1982, Nathan has taught and worked as an organist-choirmaster in California and presently is director of music for Cove United Methodist Church in Lakewood, OH, a Cleveland suburb.

The concert will be made up of music written by organists of the Church of Sainte Clotilde in Paris: Cesar Franck, Charles Arnould Tournemire and Langlais. Their works span a century.

BENEZE AMONG MULTI-GALLON DONORS

Buck Beneze, associate dean of students, was among 21 persons honored last month by the Carter Blood Center for rolling up their sleeves 2,032 times. As a group they have given a total of 254 gallons of blood in their lifetimes, and they were cited as "truly heroes in our community" at a luncheon hosted by the center in their honor.

As of that event, Buck had donated a total of 11 gallons of blood.

The luncheon event came during what three Metroplex mayors had proclaimed as National Volunteer Blood Donor Month. The three, including Fort Worth Mayor Bob Bolen, expressed appreciation to the honorees for their "exemplary commitment to the volunteer blood supply."

*** **

MARAUDERS TREAT YOUNG PATIENTS TO GAME

TCU's most spirited student fans treated some of TCU's youngest fans to the Feb. 18 basketball game against the University of Houston. Twenty-five cystic fibrosis patients from Fort Worth Children's Hospital were the guests of the Spirit Marauders for an afternoon of food and fun.

Clark Hall donated hot dogs and snacks for a pre-game party in the dorm's lobby. The cheerleaders and Superfrog stopped by to provide entertainment, and the University Store donated sweatshirts decorated with Super Frog making a slam dunk. When the Marauders painted on their purple and white game faces, they painted their young friends' faces as well. Tickets for the game were donated by the athletic ticket office.

This is the second year the Marauders have sponsored a party and basketball game for cystic fibrosis patients. Last fall they held a similar outing to the TCU-Baylor football game.

*** **

MARTIN BEGINS INTERIM POSITION

Associate professor Kathleen Martin currently is interim chairperson of the curriculum and instruction department in the School of Education. Her appointment is for the 1989 spring semester, according to Vice Chancellor Bill Koehler.

Last year Kathleen's project, Training of Elementary School Teachers in Mathematical Thinking and Problem-Solving, was selected as one of nine strategies in the nation to be included in a COSMOS Corporation study of disadvantaged school districts serving high ability students. It was sponsored by the U.S. Department of Education. In 1987 she was one of a selected few math teachers and supervisors invited to meet with the Texas Education Agency to formulate recommendations on the math program for Grades 3 to 5 in Texas.

TCU TO HOST POPULATION EXPERT

Werner Fornos of Washington, DC, president of The Population Institute, will speak at 2 p.m. Thursday in Room 107 of Beasley Hall. He will address a hunger class taught by Andy Fort, and visitors are welcome.

Fornos has been in the forefront of the struggle to balance the world's population with the world's resources for almost 20 years. He devotes his time both to convincing leaders of developing countries that they must balance their populations with their resources and to encouraging leaders of industrialized nations to help poorer countries achieve that balance.

A native of Germany, he was made a citizen of the U.S. by an act of Congress after escaping from Nazi Germany at the age of nine. He earned a degree in government and politics from the University of Maryland and served in the U.S. Army from 1954 to 1958.

Fornos, a Maryland state legislator from 1966 to 1970, also has worked as special assistant to the U.S. Assistant Secretary of Labor for labor-management relations, Deputy Assistant Manpower Administrator and chief of special activities in the office of the Secretary of Labor. He has served as a management consultant on family planning programs to the U.S. Agency for International Development, the American Public Health Association and Westinghouse Health Systems.

A former assistant professor at George Washington University, he headed its global Population Information Program. Fornos joined The Population Institute in 1978 and became its president in 1982.

*** **

NOTES ON FOLKS

CURT WILSON, head of TCU's jazz studies, was named president-elect of the Texas chapter of National Association of Jazz Educators (NAJE) during the recent Texas Music Educators Association convention in San Antonio. He is due to serve as NAJE chapter president in 1990-91. This is a second go-round for Curt in NAJE administration. He was president-elect of the Ohio chapter in 1976, but joining the TCU faculty that year prevented his serving as president in Ohio.

TCU was well represented at the TMEA meetings. CYNTHIA FOLIO gave a clinic entitled "Integrating Theory Skills into the Private Music Lesson" with the help of four of her students--BETH PATTON, AMANDA ARMSTRONG, CHRISSE RYDER and HOLLIE GROSKLOS. Cynthia and KERRY HUGHES served on the audition committees for the all-state orchestra. BOB BLANTON and the TCU Wind Ensemble presented a concert that featured STEVE WEGER, trumpet. Kerry was one of only four trumpet teachers chosen to judge the all-state orchestra auditions.

MORE NOTES ON FOLKS

KEITH ODOM (English) was presented a leadership award by the Texas Joint Council of Teachers of English (TJCTE) at their Affiliates Leadership Luncheon Feb. 10 at the Stouffer Hotel in Austin. He chairs the TJCTE publications committee and has served as parliamentarian.

At the TJCTE convention Feb. 9-11, Keith also presented two sessions entitled "The Gothic Villain: Fact to Fiction" with co-presenter Dr. Neil Duncan of Texas Wesleyan University.

CHARLES LATHAM (Upward Bound) is one of three project directors chosen to be part of a two-day training program for new directors. One hundred fifty new directors from all areas of the country will attend the training in either Washington, D.C., or Austin. Charles will be providing two sessions: "Documenting Eligibility and Program Services with Computers--An Introduction to Data Base Programs" and "Data Elements for an Upward Bound Database." The National Council of Educational Opportunities Associations is providing the training through a grant from the U.S. Department of Education.

ANANTHA BABBILI (journalism) presented a paper titled "International Affairs, Journalism Education and Research" at the Sixth Annual Conference on International Communication hosted by the University of Miami Feb. 7-10.

RALPH BEHNKE (speech communication) has had a study entitled "Self-Awareness and Self-Statements as Predictors of Communication Apprehension" published in the Journal of the Northwest Communication Association. The study was co-authored by former TCU professor DAN O'HAIR and University of North Texas professor Warren Watson.

An article by ARTURO FLORES (modern languages) entitled "El discurso teatral chicano y la ruptura de un verosimil" was published in Review of Latin American Studies.

BOB FRYE (English) presented a program entitled "St. Paul, Garrison Keillor, and Lee Iacocca: Letters as Conversations with the Absent" for the Feb. 9 meeting of Oak Crest Woman's Club of Hurst-Euless-Bedford.

"Thackeray and the Uses of Opera," an article by JOE LAW (English/Writing Center), has appeared in the November issue of Review of English Studies.

DOUGLAS SIMPSON, new dean of the School of Education, was elected vice president of the Southeast Philosophy of Education Society for 1989-90 at its recent annual meeting at Tennessee State University. He just completed a term as program chairperson.

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

- Feb. 21
- Black History Month: Gospel music by Word of Truth Choir, Student Center lounge, noon; Kappa Alpha Psi presents "A Tribute to Black History," lecture by County Commissioner Dionne Bagsby, Student Center Woodson Room, 7:30 p.m.
 - Women's tennis, TCU-Cooke County College, Lard Center, 2:30 p.m.
 - Women's basketball, TCU-Texas Tech, Daniel-Meyer Coliseum, 7:30 p.m.
- Feb. 22
- Black History Month: Moslem chapel service led by Iman Hatim Hamidullar, Robert Carr Chapel, noon.
 - Basketball, TCU-Texas Tech, Daniel-Meyer Coliseum, 7:35 p.m.
- Feb. 23
- TCU Retired Personnel meeting, Paul Boller speaking on his book "Presidential Wives," Fireside Room, Colonial Cafeteria in the park, 11:30 a.m.
 - Lecture by Werner Fornos, president of The Population Institute, Beasley Hall Room 107, 2 p.m.
 - TCU Fine Arts Guild production of Rodgers' and Hammerstein's "Oklahoma" by music, theatre and dance departments, Ed Landreth Auditorium, through Feb. 25, 8 p.m. nightly.
- Feb. 24
- Biology seminar: "Resource Defense and Sexual Selection in the Iguanid Lizard Uta palmeri" by Diana Hewes of the University of Texas at Austin, Sid Richardson Lecture Hall 3, noon.
 - Baseball, TCU-Southeastern Louisiana, TCU baseball diamond, 1 p.m. (doubleheader).
- Feb. 25
- Baseball, TCU-Southeastern Louisiana, TCU diamond, 1 p.m.
- Feb. 27
- Spring blood drive, through March 2.
 - Exhibition of paintings by Susan Harrington, new art faculty member, Moudy Building Exhibition Hall, through March 17, 11 a.m.-4 p.m. weekdays, 1-4 p.m. weekends.
 - Black History Month: Lecture by sociologist Julius Wilson of the University of Chicago, Beasley Hall Room 206, 3 p.m.; Alpha Phi Alpha panel discussion, "Survival Strategies for the Black Community in the 1990s," Student Center ballroom, 7 p.m.
 - Opening fiesta and reception for 1989 Festival of Yucatecan and Mayan Culture, Student Center Woodson Room, 7 p.m., including the opening reception for a showing of Yucatecan and Mayan regionalist paintings by Manuel Lizama, Brown-Lupton Gallery, through March 17, open 11 a.m.-4 p.m. weekdays, 1-4 p.m. Saturdays and Sundays.
- Feb. 28
- Women's tennis, TCU-Texas, Lard Center, 1:30 p.m.
 - Festival of Yucatecan and Mayan Culture concert by duo Zazil Ha, Student Center ballroom, 7:30 p.m.
 - Guest organ recital by Nathan Ensign, Ed Landreth Auditorium, 8 p.m.

CLASSIFIED

FOR SALE: Three-bedroom, two-bath home in Wedgwood; fireplace, sun room, close to schools; 2,000 square feet; priced to sell. Call 292-8290.

FOR SALE: Three-bedroom, two-bath brick house two doors off campus at 2716 Cockrell. Detached double car garage rebuilt last year. House in good condition. Call 292-4188.

DUPLEX FOR RENT: Unfurnished one-bedroom duplex, 10 blocks from campus at 3132 Livingston (back unit); appliances, air conditioning/heating, new paint; water paid; no pets; $225 per month plus one-month deposit. Call 274-2210 or 274-0089.

REWARD: For finder and returner of grey wool Pendleton suit jacket left in Sec. 10 of Daniel-Meyer Coliseum Feb. 8. Call Ext. 7802.

*** **

OFFICIAL ABSENCES

February 15, 1989

Students listed below must make up any class assignments that were missed. It is the responsibility of the student to arrange with his/her professor for the make-up. If you have any questions, call 921-7855.

Students who will attend the Conference on Student Government at Texas A&M University at College Station Feb. 27-28:

Andy Black	Tom Ivester	Brooke Rose
Laetitia Coleman	Sarah Norwand	Geoff Turner

Women's basketball team members who participated in a game at Fayetteville, Arkansas, after 1 p.m. on Friday, Feb. 10:

Wendy Brinkley	April Ham	Kathleen Olson
Janice Dziuk	Dana Hargrove	Candace Wallin
Jody Elkin	Michelle Henry	Susan Warren
Deana Giles	Elizabeth Naughton	Joi Wells
Carol Glover	Yolanda Norman	Elizabeth Zuber

Men's tennis team members who participated in a tournament at Miami after 11 a.m., Feb. 16, and on Feb. 17:

Clinton Banducci	Mark Van Der Donk	Luis Ruette
Gary Betts	Eric Lings	Sandon Stolle
Tony Bujan	Gerard Ronan	Mark Tjia

Men's tennis team members who will participate in the Rolex National Team Tournament at Louisville, Kentucky, on Feb. 21, 22, 23 and 24:

Clinton Banducci	Mark Van Der Donk	Luis Ruette
Gary Betts	Eric Lings	Sandon Stolle
Tony Bujan	Gerard Ronan	Mark Tjia

Women's basketball team members who participated in a game at Rice on Feb. 14:

Wendy Brinkley	April Ham	Kathleen Olson
Janice Dziuk	Dana Hargrove	Candace Wallin
Jody Elkin	Michelle Henry	Susan Warren
Deana Giles	Elizabeth Naughton	Joi Wells
Carol Glover	Yolanda Norman	Elizabeth Zuber

Men's basketball team members who missed classes on Feb. 15 for a game at Rice:

Richie C. Antee	Arthur C. Hurst	Jeff McCurry
Jeffery L. Boutelle	August C. Klinkenberg	Keith Oglesby
Kevin Crawford	Del Elliott Lemond	Craig Sibley
Anthony B. Edmond	John K. Lewis	Reginald D. Smith
Edwin T. Fromsyan	Jarrod A. Lomas	Byron Todd Willis
Danny F. Hughes	Erik J. Martin

Baseball team members who participated in athletic events that included Tulane, Louisiana State University, Southwest Louisiana State and University of New Orleans on Feb. 8 through 14:

Craig Briscoe	Leroy Jones	Clayton Odom
Steven Callarman	Robert Jones	Madison Owen
Kyle Caple	Robert Jordan	Michael Shipes
Christopher Ellis	Kerry Knox	Jared Shope
Bradley Firestone	Scott Leoffler	William Shoptaw
Richard Gonzalez	Michael Losa	Steven Stanley
Christopher Granville	Jon Maestri	Scott Thomas
Thomas Hargrove	Scott Marvin	Paul Thorpe
Jeffrey Hargrave	Terry Mooney	Lew Williams
Randy Hargrove	Gary Nelson

Journalism students who will participate in an Investigative Reporters and Editors Conference in Baton Rouge, LA, Feb. 24 and 25:

Andrea Heitz	Robin Noble	Brenda Welchlin
Leonora Mizai	Michele Releford	