

A cynic knows the price of everything but the value of nothing. — Wilde *

Deport, Texas,

R.F.D. 2

7/15/33

Mr. Osear E. Monnig,

312 W. Leuda,

Fort Worth, Texas.

Dear Mr. Monnig:

Dearl.

I am informed that you are interested in purchasing fragments of meteorites. I have a small fragment weighing approximately eight ounces which I desire to sell provided I am offered propitious remuneration. (It should be worth five or four dollars)

Awaiting a convenient answer, I am

Sincerely,

Edgar L. Bryson

Edgar L. Bryson.

* When modesty was made a virtue it must have been very advantageous to the fool. — Schopenhauer.