Dear Amon:

One of my mascots in the private office is a photograph of your boy, almost entirely surrounded by snow.

This is a great baby, and I am proud that you allowed us to have one of his pictures.

I hope that Mrs. Carter is in good health and that you are looking as young as when I saw you last.

Take care of yourself and come in and lunch with me the next time you are in town.

Faithfully yours,

Duron
