

CHARLES R. HANSEN

Manufacturers' and Sales Agent

Advertising Counsel

ORIGINATING, PLANNING
COMPILING and PUBLISHING INSTITUTIONAL and SALES ADVERTISING

Phone Lamar 7765
P. O. Box 391

METALLIC and FIBRE SIGNS
ILLUMINATED SIGNS and SIGNALS
ART SIGNS

319 W. T. Waggoner Bldg.
Fort Worth, Texas

Nov. 14th, 1923.

Mr. Amon G. Carter, Personal,
c/o Fort Worth Star Telegram,
Fort Worth, Texas.

Dear Mr. Carter:

Permit me, as a resident, not of your personal acquaintance, to compliment you upon the humorous and pithy remarks for the benefit of the large assemblage under the auspices of the Kiwanis and the joint attendance of other civic organizations and the honored guests present.

This is the first time I have ever heard you give a talk and both Mrs. Hansen and myself, in discussing the success of this gathering, agreed that while all of the speakers gave very appropriate talks, your remarks seemed most fitting for the occasion and your personality was most dominant and brilliant.

Yours very truly,

Charles R. Hansen