Mr. Amon G. Carter,
Star-Telegram,
Fort Worth, Texas.

Dear Amon:

Your cordial telegram came a day late but it came and met with as much hospitality as if it had arrived yesterday.

The flask was unique and aroused the joyous manifestation of all the guests that saw it and made everybody feel good.

That seems to be one of your choicest characteristics--making people feel good.

In the long years of our association and friendship it has always been your uppermost desire to do the nicest thing you could for those you liked. You have been very successful at it and it has made you a host of friends.

If there is much in that old saying about 'bread cast on the waters', there is a day coming when you are going to have the biggest bakery in America.

With cordial regards and best wishes to you and your family -

Sincerely yours,

E. M. Swasey

P.S. My Christmas tobacco jars just got in from Holland today so they are going to be late.
