

The New Willard
Washington, D.C.
January 9, 1924.

My dear Sir:-

Mrs Harding asks me to express to you her sincere thanks for sending her a copy of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram containing the story of President Harding's being laid away to rest. She has added this to her collection of tributes which have done much to bring consolation in the hours of her bereavement.

Assuring you of Mrs. Harding's appreciation, I am

Very truly yours

L. G. Bew

Secretary