BARTLESVILLE, OKLA.

April 11, 1924.

My dear Amon:

Your telegram arrived at a very opportune moment for the Stockholders Meeting and the boys voted unanimously that, everything being equal, we will adjourn our next annual meeting to your cellar and "drill 'er in".

It was very gracious of you to remember us and the only disappointment in the entire festivities was your not being present. We all had a good time and I would have been very glad to have had you meet some of the fellows, although I think you were acquainted with a good many.

With personal regards, I am

Sincerely,

Mr. Amon G. Carter,
Ft. Worth, Texas.
