Dear Mr. Carter,

I have been discussing the matter of the Prince of Wales' hat, and it is very difficult to know what we can do in the matter. I do not quite see what we can do for you. I think perhaps the best possible thing would be to ask Harold Vernon, or failing that I see no reason why you should not write to Sir Godfrey Thomas, who is the Prince of Wales' private secretary, at St. James' Palace. You could explain to him the circumstances, and he is the correct man to approach.

I trust I shall see you again some time before you go.

Best wishes,

Yours very sincerely,

Fred Lewis
