December 15, 1924.

Mr. Leon Gross,
c/o Washer Bros.,
Main at Eighth,
Fort Worth, Texas.

Dear Leon:-

Enclosed find check for $10.00 to be used any way you see fit, together with other contributions from other citizens of Fort Worth, to remember Amon G Carter with a pleasant surprize for Christmas. This check is sent with the greatest of free will and cheerfulness and we consider it a pleasure to have the opportunity to do it. It is not a question of the amount. If you needed twenty times that amount it would be given just as cheerfully.

My judgment of Carter is he is a real high-class, self-sacrificing dynamo of energy, working for the best interest of the entire citizenship of the dear city that you and I love so well. If you want to you can increase this to $200.00 and notify me and I will send you a check for the difference. If we had more citizens like him there would be ten skyscrapers on Main Street whereas we only have about three. He is a genuine man made up of a combination of traits that you rarely find in any one man.

Sincerely your friend,

Walter B. Scott
