S.W. Hutton, Registrar

ON REQUISITIONING SUPPLIES:

The Business Office has requested that the departments requisition their supplies after one o'clock. They have less help in the Business Office in the morning when more people are waited on paying bills, cashing checks, etc. It will be a great help if you will requisition your supplies after one o'clock.

Jerome A. Moore, Dean

GUEST SPEAKER

We will have on our campus for the Fine Arts Festival, Mr. George Freedley, one of the outstanding men in contemporary American theatre. He is drama critic for two New York papers, author of the classic History of the Theatre, and holds high office in national drama organizations. Mr. Freedley will talk to our interested faculty and students on Monday, December 5, at 10:00 A.M. in the Little Theatre. We hope many of you will find it possible to attend this talk.

Walther R. Volbach
Director of Theatre

FINE ARTS FESTIVAL

The faculty and student body of the University are cordially invited to attend the events of the Fine Arts Festival. The dedication convocation will occur Sunday at 3:30 with Dr. Howard Hanson as the speaker. On Sunday evening Dr. Hanson will conduct a concert of his own compositions. Mr. Don Gillis will be here on Tuesday to conduct a program of his works. Monday evening will bring a program of chamber music. Wednesday evening will present the a cappella choir and Mr. Gordon Young, University organist. On Sunday afternoon, December 11, the symphonic band and the University choral club will appear.

The play "Burning Embers" by Samuel Harrison will open Monday evening for a world premier with the author in attendance.

The operetta "Acres of Sunshine" by Mrs. Ruth Graham and Mrs. Mary Stevens will be given on the evenings of December 9 and 10. This is sponsored by the TCU Women's Ex's of Fort Worth,

An unusual art exhibit from the Downtown Gallery in New York will be on display throughout the festival.
