THE FIRST ISSUE OF THE FACULTY BULLETIN - 1951

A radio news commentator the other day used the expression "We wish you a Hopeful New Year". This would be our greeting to you as we resume our regular duties in office and class room.

FINAL CLASS ROLLS

The Final Class Rolls for the current semester will be in your hands by January 18. Procedure for turning in grades will be found in the Final Examination Schedule.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR SPRING REGISTRATION

Registration Instructions for the Spring are now available. A careful reading and re-reading of these instructions will lend efficiency in registration. Copy is attached for your convenience.

REGAREING STUDENTS ENTERING MILITARY SERVICE

If a student says anything to you in regard to entering military service either as a volunteer or in response to call please urge the student to contact the Registrar's Office for instructions, regarding credit for courses.

POLICY AND ROUTINE HANDLING REGARDING THOSE WHO WILL ENTER MILITARY VERVICE BEFORE THE CLOSE OF THE CURRENT SEMESTER

I. POLICY

TCU students who are inducted in the service or who are recalled voluntary or involuntarly or who enlist in the armed forces between mid-semester and the close of the current semester will receive full credit on courses they are passing on the basis of grades they are making at the time of enlistment.

II. ROUTINE

Students to whom the above policy applies should go to Dean Richardson where a date for leaving will be agreed upon. He will in turn refer the student to Mr. Hutton, Registrar, who will advise each teacher and secure the grade the student is making at the agreed date. The student will then be notified by Mr. Hutton the outcome on all courses that the transaction may be completed and on record.

III. POLICY REGARDING REFUND OF TUITION (Re-statement)

If a student is called into military service before half of the semester has passed, he will be given a proportionate refund of any payments made for the semester's work.

The above policy was agreed to by President Sadler, Dean Richardson and Mr. Hutton on December 20, 1950.

PRE-COUNSELING FOR SPRING SEMESTER

All students who are currently enrolled and who are to be enrolled in the Spring semester are urged to contact their counselors during the week of January 8 through January 13. Pre-counseling slips are available in the Student Personnel Office. The following procedure will be observed.

- 1. Students will go directly to counselor if freshman, and to department chairman if upper-classmen.
- 2. List of courses, but not schedule, will be made.
- 3. Non-veteran students will receive one duplicate.
- 4. Veterans will receive two duplicates.
- 5. Veterans will take one duplicate to Student Personnel Office and process VA forms.

Counselors and department offices will please observe posted office hours during this period. This is a very important occasion; and, if we can do a thorough job of pre-counseling, it will greatly facilitate Spring registration.

Thanks, in advance, for your cooperation.

Thomas F. Richardson Dean of Students

P.S. If the student record book or other records are needed, they will be available in the Registrar's Office.
