

FACULTY MEETING

There will be a general faculty meeting on February 27 at 4:00 PM in the Little Theatre. Dr. Mortimer J. Adler, Professor of the Philosophy of Law, University of Chicago, will deliver an informal address. We are indeed fortunate to have so outstanding an educator as Dr. Adler speak to us and we hope you can arrange to be present.

Joseph Morgan, Chairman
Faculty Program Committee

CONCERT TO BE HELD

A former T.C.U. student, Melvin Dacus and his wife, Katherine Peirson, will sing a concert in Ed Landreth Auditorium on Sunday, February 18 at 3:30 p.m. The concert is being sponsored by the T.C.U. Women Exes. Tickets at $.75 each, may be secured from Miss Kitty Wingo, Physical Education Department, or Miss Mary Charlotte Faris, in the Library.

All faculty members and friends are urged to attend.

Kitty Wingo, President
T.C.U. Women Exes

APPROVED ABSENCES

In order to participate in a basketball game with Texas University, the following boys were absent from classes all day Friday and Saturday, February 2 and 3:

Allen, Richard	Ethridge, John	Reynolds, Ted
Campbell, Maurice	Fromme, Harvey	Swaim, John
Coogan, Leland	Kilpatrick, J. Bryan	Taylor, Johnny
Elliott, Bill	Knox, James	Taylor, Tommy
	McLeod, George

Amos Melton
Bus. Mgr. of Athletics

The following students will be representing T.C.U. in the Mid-South Debate Tournament at Hendrix College, Conway, Arkansas, on Friday and Saturday, February 16 and 17. It is requested that these students be excused from classes on those days and be permitted to make up classwork missed while representing the school on the trip.

James Cunningham
Worth Dalton

William D. Powell
Lawrence Sullivan

E. L. Pross
Dept. of Speech