

TO ALL FACULTY AND STAFF

Saturday, November 17, has been declared the official student body trip to Austin for the University of Texas - T.C.U. game. All classes will be dismissed and offices closed for that occasion. Special arrangements will be made by teachers of special Saturday students, giving them an opportunity to make up their work.

THANKSGIVING SERVICE TO BE HELD TUESDAY

The traditional Thanksgiving service for the University will be held in Ed Landreth Auditorium next Tuesday morning at 10:00. Our own Vice-president, Dr. Otto Nielsen will be the speaker. Classes will be dismissed for this service.

The United Religious Council was delighted with the co-operation of faculty and students for the Millikan assembly and hopes to receive the same co-operation for the Thanksgiving service.

Director of Religious Activities

SECOND REQUEST!

Please send us a memo if your department or your students plan any special events for Homecoming. We are trying to co-ordinate the information regarding special events so we may inform the officers of the Ex Students Association next Tuesday night, Nov. 20, about them. Any one who will sponsor a special event for Homecoming day is invited to attend this meeting in the Faculty Lounge of Jarvis Hall at 7:30 p.m.

JARVIS CHRISTIAN COLLEGE CHOIR TO PRESENT CONCERT

The Jarvis Christian College Choir will present a concert of sacred music at the East Annie Street Christian Church next Sunday, November 18 at 5:30 p.m. The purpose of this concert is to raise money to pay for the new organ which Jarvis College has just purchased. The pastor of the church has appealed to the faculty of Texas Christian University to support this program by the purchase of patron tickets at $1.00 each.

The university administration is very interested in helping Jarvis College in any way possible and has approved this request. If you are willing to be a patron of this project, please put the amount you wish to contribute in an inter-office envelope and forward it to my office at once.

George P. Fowler
 Director of Religious Activities

APPROVED ABSENCES

The following students are participating in the Inter-Collegiate Rodeo at Sul Ross State College on November 16 and 17, and it is requested that they be permitted to make up those classes missed:
