

ATTENTION FACULTY

At the meeting of the University Administrative Committee on November 26th it was decided that December 1st, being a Homecoming Day with all the activities involving both students and staff, that it would be advisable to dismiss all classes for those morning hours. All staff members are encouraged to be on the campus for all the activities and in their offices for at least part of the time in order that the returning ex-students may come by to visit with them. The official T.C.U. parade will begin at 9:30 A.M. downtown. Many other official Homecoming activities have been scheduled and full participation by all students and staff is encouraged.
