FACULTY FORUM MEETING

Time: Tuesday, March 11, 1952
7:30 p.m.

Place: Faculty Lounge
Jarvis Hall

The program will be presented by the Social Science Division of the Faculty. Ortega y Gasset's book, Revolt of the Masses, will be the point of the departure for the evening's discussion. Charles W. Proctor of the Government Department will present a summary of the book and he will be followed by Robert H. Talbert of the Sociology Department and Merrill Rippey of the History Department. The last two gentlemen will give critiques of the work from the view-points of their fields. There will be time for audience participation.

Your cordially invited to attend what should be a stimulating discussion.
